

Horseshoe Staff Holds Reunion

The staff of Camp Horseshoe, Boy Scout camp along the Octoraro, met in the new Scout headquarters on the third floor of the Temple Building, here, last night and swapped stories of camp life after enjoying supper.

The annual reunion attracted 15 young men of the 23 on the staff from troops scattered throughout the county. They related stories of their experiences in camp and viewed the latest motion pictures of Camp Horseshoe, shown under the direction of Scout Executive Thomas J. Price and his assistants, Charles Sonneberg and Ernest White.

Among those of the camp staff present were: William Hesser, of Phoenixville; Agnew R. Ewing, of West Grove; Mercer Sloan, West Grove; William P. Lear, West Chester; Calvin Trunk, Coatesville; William Wichert, Berwyn; Earl Buckwalter, West Chester; Leon Lawrence, Pomeroy; Glenn Wolfe, West Chester; Elwood Spellman, Paoli; David Hartman, Phoenixville; Frank Beam, Parkesburg; Franklin Kelton, St. David's; Chas. Wilgis, Thorndale, and R. Henri Gordon, Upper Darby.
